TEDDY DECIDES TO DISOBEY DOCTOR'S ORDERS

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
OYSTER BAY, July 8. — Colonel Roosevelt, leader of the Progressive party, announced last night that he is going to take an active part in the coming campaign despite the advice of his physicians to the contrary.
He leaves for New York today to personally direct the campaign and will attend a meeting of Progressive party state leaders to be held at headquarters.
It is probable that at the conference an itinerary will be agreed upon and that Roosevelt will at once begin making political speeches.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't hesitate! A laxative is necessary if tongue is coated, breath bad or stomach sour.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, a sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels, without griping, and you have a well-playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels, and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Put directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," and then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—advertisement.

INDIGNANT AT THE DISREGARD FOR SIGNALS

The British bark Calcutta, commanded by Captain Davis, has recently arrived at Yokohama after a 52 days' voyage from San Francisco, with 2700 tons of kerosene for the Standard Oil Company in her hold. Fine weather was experienced all the way and a good wind carried the vessel as far as Rock Island, a small point south of Vries Island. From Rock Island calm winds and light airs prevailed to Yokohama.

Captain Davis was very indignant over the treatment accorded him by the masters of several ships which passed the Calcutta on their way to Yokohama. The bark was passed by the Nippon Maru, by the Korea, by

ORDERS OF THE HAWAIIAN DEPT.

July 6, 1914.

Special Orders No. 125.
1. Private Russell J. Ellis, 159th company, Coast Artillery corps, Fort Ruger, H. T., is transferred to the quartermaster corps, Coast Defense of Oahu, and will be assigned to station by the Coast Defense commander. (D. Q. M. 4097-308.)

2. Private Joseph S. Barnes, Company F, 25th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, H. T., will be discharged with honor from the army by the commanding officer of that post, on account of not being a fit associate for other soldiers. (8624.)

3. Private Chris J. Kempton, Company I, 2d Infantry, Fort Shafter, H. T., is transferred to Company I, 3d battalion of engineers, at that post. He will report to the commanding officer of the organization to which transferred, for duty.

The expense of this transfer will be borne by the soldier. (8632.)

4. Private Fred E. OSMON, Company I, 2d Infantry, Fort Shafter, H. T., is transferred to Company I, 3d battalion of engineers, at that post. He will report to the commanding officer of the organization to which transferred, for duty.

The expense of this transfer will be borne by the soldier. (8631.)

July 6, 1914.

Special Orders No. 125.
5. Private Clarence E. Lampley, Company D, 1st Infantry, Schofield Barracks, H. T., will be discharged from the army by the commanding officer of that post by purchase under the provisions of general orders No. 31, current series, war department. (8633.)

6. The leave of absence granted 2d Lieutenant Livingston Watrous, 25th Infantry, by paragraph 2, special orders No. 133, headquarters, Schofield Barracks, H. T., June 24, 1914, is extended five days.

7. Sergeant Andrew Braun, quartermaster corps, Fort Ruger, H. T., will be discharged from the army by his commanding officer by purchase, under the provisions of general orders No. 31, current series, war department. (8623.)

8. Private Andrew B. Bennich, hospital corps, department hospital, will be discharged from the army by his commanding officer by purchase, under the provisions of general orders No. 31, current series, war department. (8626.)

The Wawata Maru, and another Japanese ship. In each case the Calcutta's commander hoisted signals asking these vessels to report the bark at Yokohama, all well. He says all of his steamers passed within easy reading distance of the signals but not one regarded them nor did their commanders report at Yokohama. The P. & O. S. S. Nallore, however, passed the bark later and reported as soon as she came into port.

While it is not compulsory for one ship to report to another, it is a bit of nautical etiquette that a steamer report a sailing vessel, especially when the sailing vessel has been out for a long period. The underwriters are most always sure that the sailing vessel in question will at some time or other be sighted and when ships come into port that have been in the same location where the sailing ship has been they are most anxious for news. The fact that his signals were utterly disregarded angered Captain Davis more than had they simply forgotten to report him.

STARR JORDAN IS SLATED FOR HIGH HONOR

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 8.—The election of David Starr Jordan, former president of Stanford University and one of the best known educators in the United States, to the presidency of the National Education Association is assured.

Unwritten Law of the Sea.

There is another of these unwritten laws which we think could be repealed to advantage. It is that which requires the captain of a ship to stay on the bridge during fog or very bad weather, no matter how long it continues. It is a fairly common thing to read in dispatches that the captain of this or that ship had been on the bridge for twenty-four or twenty-eight or even sixty hours at a stretch because of storm or fog. Why should this be the practice? The most rugged man alive cannot be as alert, mentally and physically, after twenty-four hours of exposure as he was when he went on duty. He cannot be as competent to render quick decisions—such for instance as an impending collision might call for—as a man who was unfatigued. The average transoceanic passenger, we fancy, would much prefer to trust his life in an emergency to a fresh chief officer than to a jaded captain.

REDFIELD CLAIMS TARIFF HAS NOT HURT BUSINESS

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Reports just completed by the government show that foreign manufacturers sent into the United States during the first eight months under the operation of the Underwood tariff law eight and eight-tenths more of their finished products than under the old tariff.

Secretary Redfield declared yesterday that this condition shows that there is no ground for the expressed fear of American merchants and American manufacturers that they will be driven out of business as a result of the Democratic tariff.
